IN WOMEN'S ATTIRE

Men Are Said to Have Looted Illinois Central Dining Cars.

NEW DEPARTURE IN ROBBERY

Chicago Police Raid Apartment Containing Hundreds of Dollars' Worth of Goods Said To Have Been Stolen from Dining Cars.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Four men, thought to be implicated in a series of robberies in dining cars, committed while they were wearing women's attire, were arrested Friday night in a raid on an apartment building at Twenty-third street and Wabash avenue.

The men were taken with hundreds of dollars' worth of plunder, said to have been stolen from dining cars on the Illinois Central railroad, and expensive dresses that are supposed to have been worn on the thieving expeditions.

L. J. St. Cloud, named as the alleged ringleader, for four years was a cook on the "Diamond Special," of the Illinois Central. He was discharged last March. His companions are August C. Klinger, Edward Mortimer and Louis Thomas. St. Cloud rented the flat in the apartment buildings some time ago.

The police believe they can connect the men with numerous robberies that were supposed to have been committed by women.

STRIKERS ARE FIRM.

Telegraphers Have No Intention of Going Back to Work.

Atlanta, Sept. 9.—Unless some definite and favorable action is taken by the directors of the Western Union Telegraph company at their meeting next Tuesday, assert members of the local striking telegraphic union, the deadlock now existing between the commercial key operators and their employers will continue until congress convenes and assumes control of the country's wires.

Of the original number of some two hundred strikers who left their keys in Atlanta about a month ago, only a few remain unemployed. Of that few some are connected with the headquarters of the local union and are managing the strike. There has been no desertion from the strikers since the fight began. The unemployed telegraphers have been securing work in other occupations and have in a few instances taken positions with the railways.

LOYALTY IS DOUBTED.

British Government Apprehensive Regarding Irish Constabulary.

Dublin, Sept. 9.—That the government is apprehensive with regard to the coming winter in Ireland, and is doubtful regarding the loyalty of the constabulary since the Belfast agitation, is revealed in the present strenuous efforts to recruit the force.

The number of constabulary has been steadily decreasing for the past four years.

The authorities have set aside a part of the Dublin military barracks as additional quarters for the men, and to the constables and officers throughout the country there has been sent a circular instructing them to make haste to secure suitable candidates.

Lightning Bolt Kills Children.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 9.—A special to the Advertiser from Elba, Ala., states that two 7-year-old children were struck by lightning at the home of Lewis Taylor, eight miles west of Elba, Ala., and were instantly killed. The children, a little boy and girl, were playing on the front veranda when the lightning struck them.

Official Denial.

Paris, Sept. 9.—An official denial was issued Friday of the statement from Casa Blanca that the French cruiser Gloire with three companies of the foreign legion on board, had left Casa Blanca for an unknown destination.

BOLD WORK OF BANDITS.

Masked Men Force Passengers to Empty Their Pockets.

Omaha, Sept. 9.—The Omaha and Texas express on the Rock Island was raided just before daylight Friday morning, near Murdock, by three masked men. The robbers went through the chair car, robbing every passenger, securing their pocketbooks, and escaped by leaping from the moving train.

Railroad detectives and sheriffs posse are in pursuit, but the robbers have several hours the start of the officers.

The robbers were passengers of the train. Shortly after leaving Murdock, the men arose in their seats and with revolvers in each hand covered the passengers. Then the leader ordered every body to keep still and not to resist, else they would be shot.

Two men went down the aisle with has in hand, while the third kept the passengers covered. All the passengers were ordered to throw their pocketbooks into the hats and this was done.

The conductor appeared in the car with a pistol in his hand, but was promptly covered with guns and forced to drop the revolver. After getting all the money in the car, the robbers jumped from the train, which had slowed down for a grade. An attempt was made to enter the sleeper, but the door was locked and the attempt was unsuccessful.

$5,000,000 PIPE LINE.

Connects Indian Territory Oil Fields with Texas Gulf Coast.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 9.—In its issue of this week the Manufacturers' Record publishes details of the completion at a cost of $5,000,000 of a pipe line connecting the oil fields in the Indian Territory, with the Texas Gulf Coast, one of the largest undertakings of the kind in the history of the petroleum industry.

The work was done by the Gulf Pipe Line company, in exactly six months, and represents the laying of eight-inch pipes from the Glenn Pool, 150 miles through the Indian Territory and 265 miles through Texas to Sour Lake, where connection is made with a pipe line leading 35 miles to the refinery and docks at Port Arthur, in Texas.

This makes a total line 450 miles long which will require 125,000 barrels of oil to fill.

Six pumping stations have been erected, each having two 37,500-barrel steel storage tanks and the line will have a daily capacity of between 12,000 and 14,000 barrels.

TRAGEDY IN ARKANSAS.

Brakeman Shoots Railroad Clerk Then Kills Himself.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 9.—N. S. Suggs, a young brakeman employed by the Iron Mountain railroad, walked into the trainmaster's office in the union station here Friday, and after a few moments' conversation with J. G. Cromwell, a clerk, pulled a revolver and killed Cromwell. Still holding the revolver in his hand, he said:

"I've got two shots left; one for the police, and one for myself."

He walked a hundred yards down the track and shot himself through the head, dying instantly.

It is said that Cromwell and Suggs had had some trouble over business matters, Suggs claiming that Cromwell had not treated him fairly on the pay roll.

Fatal Wreck of Log Train.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 9.—A special from Elba, Ala., says that in the wreck of a log train of Henderson Boyd Lumber company railroad near Richburg, Fireman Joe Brison lost his life and several others were badly hurt. The engineer of the train was eating his dinner and the fireman was at the tender at the time of the accident. The engineer was scalded.

Treasury Money for Banks.

New York, Sept. 9.—Banks in the grain district were much relieved on Friday when they received word from Washington that the government was prepared to place with them substantial deposits of treasury money.

FATAL TRAIN WRECK

12 Killed and Many Hurt on the Rock Island Road.

EXPRESS JUMPED THE TRACK

Going at Full Speed, Leaves Track, and Collides with Freight Train that Was Standing on Siding at Norris, Iowa.

Waterloo, Iowa, Sept. 9.—Twelve persons were killed and twelve injured in the wreck of an express train on the Rock Island railroad at Norris, Iowa, Friday.

The train, which was northbound, jumped the track while going at full speed and collided with a freight train standing on a siding.

List of Dead.

P. B. Oliver, Waterloo, Iowa.
William Goodman, Waterloo, Iowa.
John N. Watson, Waterloo, Iowa.
C. L. Landphere, Shell Rock, Iowa.
W. R. Johnson, Dike, Iowa.
B. R. Christy, Minneapolis, Minn.
Lepovan Toja, Hammond, Ind.
Laborer, name unknown, Hammond Ind.
W. H. Myers, baggageman, Burlington.
Three unidentified men.
Three of the injured may die.

Came at Terrific Speed.

The northbound express was ten minutes late at Norris Siding, a little station 3 miles north of Cedar Falls, and there the freight was awaiting the express, which came along at a terrific speed. Just as the engine of the passenger was about to pass the freight engine the trucks of the train jumped the track and the engine crashed into the engine of the freight, wrecking both engines and telescoping the baggage and mail cars and demolishing the smoking car.

TOOTH SET IN GOLD RING.

Claimed that It Once Reposed in President Roosevelt's Mouth.

New York, Sept. 9.—In the window of a little shop at Lexington avenue and Sixtieth street, is a gold ring with a setting that includes two small diamonds and a human tooth.

A sign announces that it is the "tooth of the twenty-fifth president of the United States."

The proprietor of the store says he purchased it at an administrator's sale of the effects of Mrs. Julia B. Glover, the woman who committed suicide, leaving all her possessions to President Roosevelt. The tooth is said to be one that reposed in the president's face when he was a boy, and which he many years ago gave to his eccentric woman admirer.

TRAIN GOES INTO CREEK.

Bad Wreck Occurs on Seaboard Air Line Railroad, Near Helena, Ga.

Helena, Ga., Sept. 9.—One of the worst wrecks that ever occurred in this section happened Friday afternoon when the Seaboard Air Line passenger train, No. 72, jumped the track and plunged into the creek at Wilcox, 1 mile from here. The entire train, with the exception of the engine and the rear coach, went into the creek, and the first-class coach was left standing on the brink of the trestle.

Many persons were more or less injured, but no one was killed.

The coaches were crushed into kindling wood and it is a miracle that all escaped death.

Census of War Veterans.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 9.—For the first time in the history of the state an accurate census of the survivors of the war between the states is to be taken, the last legislature providing for it. Tax assessors will enumerate them and report to the director of the state department of archives and history, Dr. Thomas M. Owen, who will have them properly listed and enrolled. Dr. Owen is busy now getting blanks made up so the assessors may begin on the enumeration by the first of October.

CORPSE IN BOX.

Was Found Floating in Mississippi River—Murder Theory.

New Orleans, Sept. 9.—The finding of a man's body in a box in the Mississippi river about 70 miles north of New Orleans was reported here Friday by an incoming packet steamer. The body bore marks suggesting a cruel murder, but was in such a condition as to make a medical examination necessary to determine the cause of death. The body was buried near the river bank where found.

Great excitement was produced by the report of finding this body, which arrived a few hours after the police had begun to search for Peter Lamana, reported missing for over a week.

Lamana is the father of the Italian boy who was kidnaped and strangled last June, and following the trial of whose murderers the state troops were called out to prevent lynching.

The police had prepared to exhume the body found in the box when an acquaintance of Lamana's told them that Lamana had just returned from St. Louis. Mrs. Lamana reported her husband's disappearance to the police authorities.

AT THE ALTAR

Bride Was Deserted, But She Ordered Wedding Feast To Be Served.

New York, Sept. 9.—Miss Matilda Zalit, of Avenue E and Seventeenth street, Bayonne, N. J., was to have been married to Anthony Solinski.

Arrayed in her wedding costume and attended by her bridesmaids, Miss Zalit waited in her home, which was filled with guests, but Solinski failed to put in an appearance.

Rather than disappoint her guests Miss Zalit ordered that the wedding feast be served. Dancing followed and the deserted bride-to-be danced with all the young men and smiled when the orchestra played "No Wedding Bells for Me." She told her friends she was happy that she had been deserted before instead of after being married. Solinski sent no explanation.

A Blow Cures Paralysis.

Newark, Ohio, Sept. 9.—Frank Harold, a young Newark man, employed in a sawmill at Rocky Fork, last March was hit by a stick which fractured his skull and paralyzed his face so that he could not close his right eye. A late message from Rocky Fork says Harold has just met with a similar accident at the same place, but instead of producing bad results, the blow straightened his face and removed the paralysis, restoring him to normal condition.

To Check Bubonic Plague.

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—The board of health has recommended to the board of supervisors that the city and county hospital be burned. The city and county hospital is a collection of frame buildings and it has long been planned to demolish it. The announcement that the marine hospital service is to take charge of the plague situation is regarded here as an assurance that progress of the disease will be stopped in a short while.

Boiler Bursts, Injuring Many.

Temple, Tex., Sept. 9.—Fifty people were injured at Holland Friday afternoon when the boiler in a gin owned by Sam H Barton exploded. Sam Hill and Blake Barton were seriously injured. All three are sons of the owner of the gin. Blake Barton is not expected to live. Many of the injured were farmers and patrons of the gin.

First Football Accident of Season.

Chicopee, Mass., Sept. 9.—The first football [illegible] of the season, has been recorded here. Within a minute of beginning the first football practice game Friday, the collarbone of Fred Briggs, 18 years old, of the Chicopee high school eleven, was broken in a tackle play.

Cuban Census.

Havana, Sept. 9.—Governor Magoon has issued a decree [illegible] taking of the Cuban census [illegible] gin on Sept 29 and [illegible] Nov. 15. This census is a preliminary to the holding of the elections.

DID MAN KILL WIFE?

Horrible Tragedy Occurs in Home of Rich Retired Broker.

BUTCHES'S CLEAVER USED

It Is Claimed that Fish First Killed His Wife and Then Attempted His Own Self-Destruction by Cutting His Throat with Knife.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Mrs. Fred M. Fish, the wife of a wealthy retired broker, was found murdered in her home at 423 Davis street, Evanston, Ills, early Saturday.

Her husband with his throat cut was found unconscious on the floor of the bedroom in which the body of Mrs. Fish was lying.

It is the opinion of the police that Fish murdered his wife and then attempted to commit suicide. He was hurried to a hospital but has not yet recovered consciousness, and it is doubtful if he survives sufficiently to make a statement.

Mr. and Mrs. Fish were heard by their neighbors in a violent altercation late Friday night, and it is believed that Fish arose early after discharging a shotgun into his wife's head, hacked her in a horrible fashion with a butcher's cleaver.

A servant girl, who was in the house declared that she heard the report of a shotgun early in the morning, and the cleaver with which Mrs. Fish was mangled was found lying beside the bed.

Fish had been for twenty years associated with a prominent commission house which recently retired from business. Fish was in poor health, and for some time had suffered periodical attacks of despondency.

TWO BOYS DROWNED.

Went in Bathing in Pond Near Sweetwater, Tenn.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 9.—A special to the News from Sweetwater, Tenn., states that John McMahan, aged 7, son of Jeff McMahan, and James Brewster, aged 13, asked permission of their school teacher at noon Thursday to go home and do some chores.

They had not reached home late in the afternoon and a search was instituted which resulted in finding their clothes on the bank of a pond near there. It is supposed they had gone in bathing and, being unable to swim, were drowned. Their bodies were recovered late at night.

Appropriated Funds.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The appointment of a receiver for the properties of the Belding-Hall Manufacturing company Friday followed close upon the heels of the discovery by the creditors of the concern that its missing president, Jesse Edson Hall, had appropriated to his own uses at least $315,000 of the corporation's funds. Indications Friday were that Hall would not voluntarily return from Canada and that criminal prosecution would be instituted to bring him back to this country by the first National bank, which holds notes of the company aggregating $100,000.

Failed to Emulate Tell.

Pottville, Pa., Sept. 9.—William Burke, while at play with his little cousin, Bennie Hyer, was fatally shot by a flobert rifle which the child held. Bennie, attempting to emulate William Tell, playfully pointed the weapon at Burke's head. It was a hair trigger and almost before the boy was aware of it the piece was discharged. The bullet penetrated the forehead and lodged in Burke's brain.

President Reviews Riding Class.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 9.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt visited the riding academy near here, Friday, where the president reviewed the work of Archie and Quentin in the saddle. The girls [illegible] a ride and the president during the course of the review, expressed himself as in favor of the method of riding for [illegible]

Junior League Presents Mrs. Weston With Handsome Pitcher.

On Sunday afternoon there was a large attendance of Junior League members at the Methodist church. The little folks had secured a silver wedding present for Mrs. E. M. Weston, nee Miss Mamie Hill, who has been for several years the faithful superintendent of the Junior League, and the gift was to be presented at the meeting on Sunday.

Mrs. Weston led the service as usual, and just before the close of the meeting little Miss Belle Floyd came forward, holding in her hand a beautiful silver syrup pitcher, appropriately engraved, and in a neat little speech presented the gift to Mrs. Weston, using the following words, delivered in a beautiful and impressive manner:

"Miss Mamie: In behalf of the Junior League I come to present to you a little testimonial of our love. You have been a faithful worker as superintendent of this Junior League, and we are all quite sure it has been to you a labor of love. We can never forget the beautiful lessons of truth and the training in Christian services that you have given to us. Your own example of devotion to the Lord's work has been a blessing to us all.

"We were not much surprised when we heard of your marriage, but we were almost sorry for fear that we might lose you as our leader. We certainly wish you a long and happy life. The members of the Junior League are little folks, but they want to make you a wedding present all by themselves. We have selected as our gift a silver syrup pitcher, and we hope it may prove to be an appropriate symbol of the sweetness and joy of your future life, and a pleasant reminder of the Gainesville Junior League."

Briefs from Billville.

The Billville moonshine distilleries are all running on full time, but they are not half as full as the citizens that patronize them.

We are all preparing to have locker clubs in Billville, but unfortunately, our mother-in-law has the key to the one we have at home.

One candidate for a local office ran so fast for it that he broke a leg and his neck; nevertheless, this tragedy will not make the rest of them get out of the race.

We are still trying to feel resigned to the first of January next; and as that's the time we swear off anyhow, the prohibition law won't make much difference.

No Chance for Him.

"I should like to write you for an accident policy," said the insurance man.

"No use," replied the Billville editor. "Had one for ten years, and been in sixteen railroad wrecks, and ain't even had a leg cut off, or an arm broken! I'm the unluckiest mortal in existence!"

The seaside resorter has one advantage over the inland fellows: The freight on board bills is considerably less by steamer.

The Optimist.

"When trouble comes, just whistle."

"But how can a man whistle when he's howlin' like fury?"

"Well, then, let him howl in tune!"

Cheer up! Fall time is with us, and—
"You'll soon hear the fiddle—
See the 'possum on the griddle,
And balance to your partners all!"

A Providential Affair.

"Things do happen so providential," said the Billville philosopher.

"Think so?"

"I know it. They were just about to foreclose a mortgage on my house when a hurricane come along an' blowed it clean into the next county!"

DOCTORS PRESCRIBE SULPHUR.

But Sulphur Should Be Used in Liquid Form Only.

"Hancock's Liquid Sulphur is the most wonderful remedy for Eczema I have ever known," writes Dr. W. W. Leak of Orlando, Fla., who was cured of a case of years' standing.

Dr. W. A. Heard of Maitland, Fla., was cured of Eczema after he had suffered for thirty years, and says: "Hancock's Liquid Sulphur is the finest remedy for all Skin troubles he has ever used or prescribed."

Doctors everywhere prescribe it, but they say sulphur should be used in liquid form only, as it is in Hancock's Liquid Sulphur.

Druggists sell it. Booklet free, if you write Hancock Liquid Sulphur Co., Baltimore.

It cures all skin and scalp diseases, if used in connection with the wonderful Hancock's Liquid Sulphur Ointment.

Dr. Johnson in Norfolk.

We have received as a token of remembrance from Dr. W. M. Johnson a handsome souvenir card, being a bird's-eye view of the city of Norfolk, Va., where the Doctor stopped long enough to see the sights of Norfolk and the Jamestown Exposition on his way to Baltimore and New York. We appreciate his thoughtfulness very much.

R. C. DUNN WILL BE A CANDIDATE

Secretary Railroad Commission Aspires to Higher Job.

COMMISSIONER MORGAN'S SHOES

Mr. Dunn Thinks They Will About Fit Him, and Admits That He Would Feel Mighty Comfortable in Them. Will Make Strong Campaign.

"I will be a candidate for railroad commissioner."

Among the prominent visitors to this city is R. C. Dunn of Tallahassee, secretary of the Florida Railroad Commission, who is en route to Astatula on a brief visit to his mother, Mrs. O. J. Dunn.

While it has been conceded that Mr. Dunn would be a candidate for railroad commissioner to succeed Commissioner Morgan, who declines to again enter the race, Monday was the first time that gentleman has ever frankly stated from his own lips to any newspaper representative the fact, when he made this assertion to The Sun reporter in direct answer to the question of his candidacy.

"Yes, I will be a candidate for railroad commissioner to succeed Commissioner Morgan, who declines to again become a candidate," he said. "With the exception of Mr. Morgan, I am now the oldest man in point of service on the Commission, and I now ask the suffrage of the people of Florida. Without any spirit of conceit, I can say with impunity that, on account of my six years' connection with the Commission as its secretary, I am perfectly capable of handling the affairs of the people of my State, and if elected I promise to protect their rights and their interests to the letter."

Mr. Dunn spent the day Monday in meeting the county officials and other prominent citizens of the city and made a good impression.

M'CORMICK-McINTOSH.

Wedding at Rex of Two Well-Known Young People Sunday Noon.

There was a wedding of more than passing interest at Rex at noon Sunday, the contracting parties being L. M. McCormick, the popular manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company in this city, and Miss Nannie McIntosh, Rev. T. H. Sistrunk of Melrose officiating.

The wedding was a quiet home affair, only the immediate family of the bride and a few intimate friends being present.

The groom is one of the most widely known young men of the city, having been reared here. In connection with the management of the local Western Union office, he conducts the Continental Cafe and soda water stand, at which he has made quite a success.

The bride is also well known and popular here. She has been for some time engaged in the profession of school teaching, having been for two or three years a member of the faculty of the Gainesville Graded and High School, where she was very popular.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick boarded the train shortly after their marriage for Gainesville, arriving here Sunday evening. They will make their home at 402 West Main street S.

The numerous friends of the happy couple extend heartiest congratulations, with best wishes for a life of uninterrupted happiness and prosperity.

HEMORRHOIDS SORES AND ECZEMA

Accompanied by Terrible Itching—A Complicated and Most Distressing Case—Well-known Remedies Failed to Cure—Doctor Thought an Operation Necessary—Then

CUTICURA PROVED ITS WONDERFUL EFFICACY

"I am now eighty years old and one morning, three years ago, I was taken with a hard pain in my right side. In two days I had an attack of piles (hemorrhoids), bleeding and protruding. The doctor gave me some medicine and an ointment for them which helped me some but I had to keep using them all the time. Then I changed to the P—— remedy; but if I did not use it every day, I would get worse. The doctor said the only help for me was to go to a hospital and be operated on. At this time, about a year ago, I went to using the S—— remedies. I tried them for four or five months but did not get much help for my piles. During this time sores would come on a fleshy part of my body. They bothered me all the time. I would get one healed and another would come. These sores changed to eczema, accompanied by a terrible itching. It seemed as if I could not keep my hands from tearing my flesh. This and the pile trouble brought on an inflamed condition. Then I got the Cuticura Remedies. I washed the affected parts with Cuticura Soap and warm water in the morning, at noon, and at night, then used Cuticura Ointment on the irritated surfaces and injected a quantity of Cuticura Ointment with a Cuticura Suppository Syringe. I also took Cuticura Resolvent Pills three times a day. It took a month of this treatment to get me in a fairly healthy state and then I treated myself once a day for three months and, after that, once or twice a week. It is fortunate that I used Cuticura. The treatments I had tried took a lot of money that I would have saved by using Cuticura Remedies sooner, but I am wiser now. I am supplied with a full set of the Cuticura Remedies and would not feel safe without them. J. H. Henderson, Hopkinton, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., Apr. 26, 1907."

MR. STEENBURG MARRIED.

Was Wedded to Miss Margaret Healey in Hagerstown, Md.

Information reached this city Monday to the effect that A. O. Steenburg, one of the city's most widely known and most progressive citizens, especially in real estate matters, has for the second time in his life become a benedict, having been wedded two or three days recently to Miss Margaret I. Healey, daughter of Mrs. Catherine A. Healey, at her home in Hagerstown, Md.

The information of the marriage came as a mild surprise to friends of the contracting parties here. While it was known that Mr. Steenburg and Miss Healey were good friends, nothing was thought of their matrimonial intentions.

Mr. Steenburg has resided here for many years, and is one of the most widely known men in this section. He is a member of the firm of Patterson & Steenburg, real estate.

The bride is also well known and popular here, having spent last year as a milliner at the store of The G. W. Hyde Company. She made many friends who will be pleased to greet her again as Mrs. Steenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Steenburg expect to arrive in the city in a few days, and will make their home here.

Friends extend congratulations.

Hebrew Stores Closed.

Monday being the Jewish or Hebrew New Year, all places of business conducted by the people of that race were closed during the day.

The day was observed in the usual manner, with the exception of the services, which were omitted.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

N. A. Callison, manager of Spring Park Farm, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Callison has just returned from Savannah, Ga., where he went on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Hy Crutcher of Tampa, one of the most widely known men in Florida, is in the city for a day or two on business. Mr. Crutcher is connected with the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company.

To The Ladies: We have squeezers at the "new kind of a store"—they are guaranteed to squeeze as long as you want them, and as hard as you want them. Just say lemon—we will know. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

Prof. P. H. Rolfs, director of the experimental station of the University of Florida, has returned from Ozona, where he presided over a farmers' institute. Prof. Rolfs is also president of the Florida State Agricultural Society.

Mrs. G. S. McCaskey of Lakeland is in the city, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. K. Hooks, 402 West Main street N. Upon her return home she will be accompanied by Mrs. Hooks and baby, who will visit her for a month.

Miss Mamie Shutt is at home again, after a visit of several weeks to her friend, Mrs. Margaret Hull, Diamondale, Mich. She also visited Niagara Falls during her absence, which she pronounces as perfectly grand. Miss Shutt's friends are glad to welcome her home again.

Hon. Fred Cubberly, collector of customs of the ports of Cedar Key and Port Inglis, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Cubberly states that exports from Port Inglis have been quite lively for the past few weeks, there being eight ships at that port on Monday. The principal exports are phosphate and lumber.

Rev. J. C. Collum, the Baptist divine of Waldo who for years has been well known and popular in this section of the State, has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church of Palatka, which is one of the largest and best churches in that city. Dr. Collum's friends will extend congratulations upon this appointment, but will nevertheless regret to lose his valuable services in this territory.

J. A. Roberts, the clever manager of the naval stores establishment of Stringfellow & Oliver, near this city, expects to leave this morning for White Springs, where he will recuperate for the next few days. Mr. Roberts has been suffering severely for some time with herpes, and goes with the hope that the waters of that famous spring will benefit him. His friends hope to see him return entirely cured.

W. D. Graham has returned to Ocala, after a combined business and pleasure trip here. Mr. Graham is acting route agent of the Southern Express Company, relieving Route Agent Rhodes, who is spending a while in Asheville and other points in North Carolina with his family. Mr. Rhodes has been indisposed for some time, and friends trust that the change of climate will prove beneficial to him.

BELATED TRUST PROSECUTION.

The petition of the Government of the United States in the case of the American Tobacco Company and others covers 135 printed pages, forming one of the most interesting volumes ever prepared by the Department of Justice. Sixty-five corporations, great and small, are made defendants, and are charged with violating the anti-trust law of July 2, 1890. The history of the tobacco trade is fully discussed and the articles of incorporation, and agreements in restraint of trade, made by the defendants, are set forth at length. Besides the usual prayers for general relief and for subphoenas, there are eight special prayers, of which the most important are the second and fifth, which are as follows:

"That the agreements, contracts, combinations, and conspiracies entered into by the defendants on or about September 2nd, 1902, and thereafter, be declared illegal, and that injunctions issue restraining and prohibiting defendants from doing anything in pursuance or in furtherance of the same within the jurisdiction of the United States."

"That the court adjudge the American Tobacco Company, the American Snuff Company, the American Cigar Company, the American Stogie Company, the MacAndrews & Forbes Company, and the Conley Foil Company each a combination, in restraint of interstate and foreign trade and commerce; and that each has attempted and is attempting to monopolize the trade and commerce among the several States and with foreign nations; and order and decree that each one of them be restrained from engaging in interstate or foreign commerce, or if the court should be of opinion that the public interests will be better subserved thereby, that receivers be appointed to take possession of all the property, assets, business and affairs of said defendants and wind up the same, and otherwise take such course in regard thereto as will bring about conditions in trade and commerce among the States and with foreign nations in harmony with law."

As there is no law authorizing the appointment of a receiver in such cases, it is difficult to perceive how the courts will be able to grant that portion of this prayer which relates to such an appointment. Nor is it easy to see why this prosecution has been delayed until the present time, since the main facts in the case have been known for years, and were set forth in the Democratic campaign book of 1902.

The Federal office holders and their friends of Fort Scott gave Secretary Taft a royal reception and presented him with "a massive tin dinner pail which held six gallons and was made to typify the full dinner pail campaign cry." It was noticeable that the striking telegraphers and other workmen did not join in the demonstration. Of course, the office holders' dinner pails are always full as long as they do service to the party bosses.

Harry L. Alexander, for several years a member of The Sun's typographical force prior to the installation of the linotype in this office last April, is now city editor of The Dade City Star. If he makes as efficient local news gleaner as he did compositor The Star will have no cause to regret placing him in charge of the local department. The Sun wishes him success in his new field of labor.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

TELL THE TRUTH.

The people of the boss-ridden and corporation controlled State of Wyoming and other Northwestern States are in favor of the Dingley tariff "for the present," according to Senator Warren. But if the Dingley tariff is protecting the trusts and making the people pay high prices for trust products, it would seem that everyone not specially protected would be anxious for immediate tariff revision. If there is anything wrong or predatory about the tariff, why should it not be at once revised to eliminate the evils, and if the tariff is as efficacious as Senator Warren and the other standpatters declare it is, why promise to revise it "after election?" When people have a good thing they hang on to it. Why don't the Republican politicians tell the truth, like the former Congressman McCleary of Minnesota did, that "if the tariff is to be revised it must be revised higher." Still McCleary's open-heartedness was his undoing, for his Republican constituency repudiated him, and like other Republican "lame ducks" he was rewarded by President Roosevelt with a Federal office, so his example hardly commends itself to other standpat statesmen.

An Orlando man is convinced that advertising pays. He advertised for a lost five-dollar bill and a stranger, who had picked up one on the street, read the advertisement and restored the bill to the advertiser. A few days later, while looking over a vest he had laid off, the original lost bill was found in a pocket. He says advertising pays 100 per cent.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Name of Swamp-Root.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, teachers and writers on Materia Medica who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompained with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

BANDIT RASULI'S PRISONER.

Caid Sir Harry McLean Has to Undergo Many Hardships.

Tangier, Sept. 9.—Some of the details contained in the recent letters received here from Caid Sir Harry MacLean, who was captured early in July by the bandit Raisuli and has since been held prisoner, have been divulged and it is seen that Raisuli has not been treating his captive well.

The Caid complains that he is suffering from chills as a result of his sleeping on the floor with only a carpet for a covering. Raisuli refused to supply him with a mattress, but the Caid adds:

"The chief is very kind in sending me milk, as I am afraid to eat anything."

Sir Harry says he is in a tumble down room, the roof of which on one side is completely lacking. He is guarded by four of Raisuli's men and the five have only one small kettle for water. It is consequently impossible for the Englishman to wash.

FIANCEE WAITED IN VAIN.

While on His Way To Be Married, Young Man Was Murdered..

Nacogdoches, Tex., Sept. 9—D. D. Owen, a prominent young man of this county, was murdered at Linn Falls, near here, while his fiancee, Miss Maggie Wilkerson, clad in wedding garments, awaited him at her father's home.

The guests, after waiting over an hour, organized a searching party, and on the way to the young man's home found his dead body, still warm, with a rope tied about his neck.

A negro, who was trying to sell the victim's horse, was arrested a few hours later several miles from the city.

She Found Relief.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas: "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Shot Wife: Killed Self.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 9.—Peter Boyle, aged 35 years, a gardener, Friday forced his wife into a rooming house in this city, where his wife was staying, and dragging her from the bed where she was asleep with a 7-year-old son, fired a bullet into her head and then killed himself by putting a bullet into his right temple. Mrs. Boyle was removed to a hospital, where she died. Boyle is said to have been out of work for some time and to have been drinking heavily.

ACROSS ATLANTIC.

Two Ocean Greyhounds in Contest of Speed.

Liverpool, Sept. 9.—The people of this city and its vicinity Friday concentrated their attention on what was considered to be an epoch-making event—the departure of the great Cunard steamer Lucitania, the largest of the Atlantic liners, on her maiden voyage to New York.

Universal interest was given to the event in that the Lucania left port at 12 Friday afternoon, about two and half hours earlier than the Lucitania, making possible a trial trip across the Atlantic between the swiftest ocean steamer with reciprocating engines flying the British flag and the largest turbine steamer.

Both vessels will call at Queenstown, but the Lucitania will not enter until the Lucania has cleared, so the older vessel will have a start of at least three hours over the boat which the Cunard company built with the view not only of beating the fastest time of its own ocean greyhound, but of regaining for Great Britain the blue ribbon of the Atlantic which was lost to Germany a decade ago.

Despite the officials of the Cunard line say that no race is contemplated, the engineers and crews of the vessels have been busy for a week getting everything in readiness with the expectation that the engines will be called upon to do their best on this occasion.

RAILROAD TAX INCREASED.

Returns to South Carolina Show Value of $71,500,000.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 9.—The board of railroad assessors has completed the assessments placed upon railroad property in South Carolina, making a total increase in assessments over last year of $4,000,000.

The assessment of the Southern railway system, $15,000,000, the Atlantic Coast Line $8,000,000, the Seaboard Air Line and the independent lines $3,000,000.

The increase is not due to any increase in the rate but solely to the desire of the board to raise assessments to the constitutional 100 per cent basis.

ADMINISTRATION ABSOLVED.

Secretary Loeb Says Was to Fix Minimum Price of Cotton Seed.

Memphis, Ark., Sept. 9.—Amid cheers, hearty wishes and applause, the third annual convention of the National Farmers' Union came to a close Tuesday.

The great convention that meant so much to the farmers of America had made its history, but its effort for the next few years to come.

Delegates bade farewell and started for their homes, from California, North Carolina, and from Florida to the state of Washington.

One of the last acts of the convention was the fixing of the minimum price of cotton seed, which was $20 per ton.

Dumb Bell Proved Fatal Weapon.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 9.—Harry Robinson, a young religious maniac, committed here for loitering, ran amuck in jail here after being upbraided by some other prisoners for disturbing their sleep with his religious harangues. His anger seemed to be concentrated on Arthur Ford, at whom he hurled a heavy metal cuspidor. It struck Ford in the temple, and he died instantaneous. Robinson then grabbed an iron poker and killed him with it. Robinson, still armed with the poker, attacked the other prisoners till Deputy Sheriff Daniel Joffey overpowered him and he was put in a padded cell.

Reform Costly to Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 9.—The present city administration was elected upon what was denominated a reform platform. Reform seems in a fair way to cost Savannah, as it cost the state, a rise in the tax rate. This has been largely due to the passage of the state prohibition law, which will mean the cutting off of $60,000 of the city's revenue. This is the amount which has poured into the city treasury each year from the saloon licenses.

Honor for Secretary Root.

Mexico City, Sept. 9.—Secretary Root has been elected an honorary member of the Geographica Statistic-honor is conferred only upon soc89 cal Society of the World. This honor is conferred only upon scientists, scholars, ecclesiastics and statesmen who are world-famous.

MEETING A CROCODILE.

The Animal and the Hunters Were All Taken by Surprise.

While looking for a hippopotamus it was the fortune of the author of "Uganda to Khartum" to encounter a crocodile under somewhat unusual circumstances. He was following a fresh track leading through the dense undergrowth from the lake inland. Two men accompanied him, one carrying his camera and the other his second gun, while he shouldered his rifle.

Suddenly I heard a rustling noise in front of me and realized that some creature was approaching, but what? It could not be the hippo, because there was no thunderous tread, but I had no time to think, for the creature, whatever it might be, was upon me in a second.

At two yards I discovered what it was—an immense crocodile more than twelve feet long.

I was right in its path, and there was no possible escape on either side, so I stood still with my rifle at shoulder and waited. The "crock" did not wait, however, and in some remarkable way it hustled me to one side, almost knocked me over, and endeavored to make his way to the water.

To dispute his right of way would have been folly. I realized only a horrible, soft, wriggling mass pressing against my legs in a most sickening way. Why he did not bite me I do not know. At first I thought he had done so as he brushed against my leg, but I found it was only his horny scales that scraped my shin. And he was more taken by surprise than I was and forgot all about his huge jaw and the lasting impression he might have made upon my legs.

After he had passed I turned to see how the men would fare. One had got back to the shore and so was no longer in view. The other man with the camera was the funniest sight. His head was stuck fast in the thick brambles, and his legs were in the air, the camera of course in the mud beside him.

I do not think the "crock" could have seen him, for he had literally taken a header into the bush, and his legs were far above the crocodile's jaws.

THE SNEEZE

In Past Ages It Played a Very Important Part in Life.

Many odd notions still exist as to sneezing, and some persons may be heard to exclaim "Bless, my soul, once!" "Bless my soul, twice!" and so on after each sneeze. But in past ages the sneeze really played a very important part.

In ancient Greece the people saluted each other whenever any one present chanced to sneeze. As Xenophon was addressing the Greek army in a moment of defeat on a historical occasion a soldier sneezed. The lines of battle were formed at once, for the sneeze was deemed a good omen, and the Greeks were successful.

Among the Hebrews when a person sneezed the bystanders would say, "Tobim chalim"—"A long life to you." In India criminals on the rack of torture have saved their own lives by sneezing accidentally.

A humorous story about sneezing is told in that wonderful collection of oddities, "The Arabian Nights." A schoolmaster was particular in teaching his pupils the value of politeness. He also told them that whenever he sneezed they should clap their hands and say, "Long live our noble master."

One day master and pupils went out for a stroll. The air was hot, and all soon grew very thirsty. Great was their joy at last to find a well. But the bucket was at the bottom of the well, and so the schoolmaster went down to bring it up. The boys seized the rope and tugged for dear life. Just as the schoolmaster reached the top of the well he sneezed. The boys let go the rope and clapped their hands, shouting, "Long live our noble master!"

As for the poor schoolmaster, he fell to the bottom of the well, where he may be to this day, for all one knows.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Swords Bent Double to Test Them.

If you have an opportunity at any time of examining a sword such as is used in naval and military services you may notice that just below the hilt, an inch or two down the blade, there is a small disk of brass welded into the blade. The meaning of this brass might well escape any one not possessed of a well developed sense of curiosity. Swords are subjected to very severe tests before being issued, and this brass piece indicates that one of the tests to which the sword was subjected was to have its point bent right back until it touched the hilt at the brass spot. Swords that have successfully withstood this severe test are trustworthy.—London Chronicle.

Tested It.

"Willie," said the boy's mother, who was preparing to go out, "you mustn't eat that cake in the pantry while I'm gone. It will make you sick."

Three hours later when she returned Willie said: "You didn't know what you were talking about, mamma. That cake didn't make me sick a bit."—Chicago News.

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

When the blood is pure and healthy the skin will be soft, smooth and free from eruptions, but when the blood becomes infected with some unhealthy humor the effect is shown by rashes, eruptions, boils and pimples, or other disfiguring and annoying skin disease. The skin is provided with countless pores and glands which act as a drainage system to rid the body of impurities through the perspiration that is constantly passing through these little tubes. There are other glands that pour out on the skin an oily substance to keep it soft and pliable. When the blood becomes filled with humors and acids these are thrown off through the pores and glands, burning and irritating the skin and drying up the natural oils so that we have not only Acne, Eczema, Salt Rheum, etc., but such dry, scaly skin affections as Tetter, Psoriasis, and kindred troubles. The treatment of skin troubles with salves, washes, lotions, etc. is not along the right line. True, such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort and aids in keeping the skin clear, but it does not reach the real cause of the trouble, which are humors in the blood, and it can therefore have no real curative effect on these skin affections. S. S. S., a gentle acting and perfect blood purifier, is the best and quickest treatment. It goes down into the blood and removes the humors, fiery acids and poisons from the circulation, cools the overheated blood, and by sending a fresh stream of nourishing blood to the skin permanently cures skin diseases of every character. S. S. S. is made entirely of health producing roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Acne, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Psoriasis, and all other disagreeable and unsightly eruptions of the skin. Special book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Effect of Whistle on Rattlesnakes.

"Should you ever encounter a rattlesnake and he shows fight just begin to whistle softly and the reptile will uncoil and lay with his eyes closed and body quivering," said a Tennessean. "On more than one occasion I have run across rattlesnakes and have always taken the fight out of them by whistling. The snake seems to become absolutely helpless when he hears a soft whistle and will make no attempt to spring upon you. This whistle appears to soothe his anger and robs him of fighting power. I saved my life on one occasion in this manner. Try it and you'll find that I tell the truth."—Nashville Tennessean.

What, Indeed?

A duchess requiring a lady's maid had an interview with one, to whom, after having examined her appearance, she said, "Of course you will be able to dress my hair for me?"

"Oh, yes," replied the girl; "it never takes me more than half an hour to dress a lady's hair."

"Half an hour, my child!" exclaimed the duchess in accents of terror. "And what on earth, then, should I be able to do with myself all the remainder of the morning?"—Dundee Advertiser.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

It Made a Difference.

"Good gracious!" exclaimed the visitor. "Hear those boys fighting and yelling out there. Regular little hoodlums, aren't they?"

"I can't say," replied Mrs. Famley. "I'm rather nearsighted, you know."

"But surely you can hear them."

"Oh, yes; but I can't tell whether they're my children or the neighbors'."—Exchange

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only preventative of baldness is the destruction of the germs which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

MELONS IN STORAGE.

How a Rural J. P. Decided a Suit Between Neighbors.

Problems worthy of Solomon's acumen are often submitted to these rural arbitrators, justices of the peace. In the Macon county (Mo.) archives is a case of this sort:

Timothy Kain, a farmer of Easley township, set out some watermelon vines which grew so luxuriously that they trespassed upon the field of his neighbor, Jacky Hopper. When garnering time came Kain's attempt to harvest his melon product was challenged by Hopper and the controversy was taken into court, and Squire William Easley, for whom the township was named, was asked to decide the ownership of ten watermelons worth 15 cents apiece. The lawyers for Kain read books to show that his rights of property followed the vines clear into the next county should they travel so far. Lawyers for Hopper produced equally solid books to prove that Hopper was entitled by law to anything that crossed on his premises. It wasn't Hopper's fault that the vines wanted to spend a week visiting. He had the same right to tell them that he would have no truck with a lot of boneybees that might be consorting with Kain and couldn't be trusted over and make honey for Hopper.

Squire Easley let the lawyers talk until they had read through all the books; then he arose to his feet and said:

"Mitchell has read books that make it absolutely certain them melons belong to Kain. I hadn't any doubt in the world about that till Guthrie here got up and turned Mitchell's law bottom side up. There's no question but what there's enough law in the books for both Kain and Hopper, and that ought to make 'em happy. The court decides under the circumstances that with the law deciding both ways there's nothing to do but to hand out justice as he sees it. The judgment of the court is that those are Kain's melons"—

"Thank you, your honor," said Mitchell, arising and bowing.

—"but that he's indebted to Hopper 20 cents apiece for storage," finished the justice.

"But, your honor," said Mitchell indignantly, "you can't do that. They haven't filed any claim for storage. Besides, you're allowing them more for their melons than they're worth on the market."

"The court will take judicial notice of the defendant's rights, offset or no," said Squire Easley, with some asperity. "And your own evidence shows Hopper was diligently guarding Kain's property for him. That's worth something."

"Guarding it?"

"Yes. Kain himself testified Hopper was there with a shotgun when he climbed over the fence."—Kansas City Star.

Professor Matched the Boss.

Boston and Cambridge people of an earlier day remember well Professor Childy of Harvard, a scholar who was likewise a live man. They tell with great gusto a story about his faithful attention to city politics. Professor Child always attended to his duties as a citizen of Cambridge. One night he went to a ward meeting at which a boss began to put forth some of his warped ideas. The college professor was speedily on his feet and scathingly denounced the boss and his methods. After the meeting was over the good natured boss, just to show that he bore no ill will, met the scholar on the stairs and, genially handing over a cigar, said, "Have a smoke, profess?" His antagonist straightened up, took the cigar and said with great dignity, "Yes, I'll match you in any of your lesser vices!"—Boston Herald.

Didn't Get a Patent.

Among the strange applications which reach the patent office one filed some years ago was most extraordinary, it being a petition for a patent for an ant guard which consisted in merely drawing a chalk mark around a table or other place by which it was claimed the approach of ants was stopped. It seems that chalk makes an ant's legs slip as soaping a track prevents a railway engine from starting. The petition was novel and caused considerable amusement. The application, however, was refused on the ground that there was nothing new in the invention, that chalk had been used for such purposes before and that such ideas were not patentable.

Forgetful.

"Tommy," said his mother reprovingly, "what did I say I'd do to you if I ever caught you stealing jam again?"

Tommy thoughtfully scratched his head with his sticky fingers.

"Why, that's funny, ma, that you should forget it too. Hanged if I can remember."—Everybody's.

THE SHIP'S RUDDER.

Difference In the Strain That Comes Upon Its Two Parts.

The rudder of a wooden ship is composed of the stalk and the backing, which are so joined together as to form in effect a single piece. The complete rudder is coppered to protect it from worms, and then, besides being practically all in one piece, it has that appearance also.

The stalk is the part to which are attached the pintles, or pivots, by which the rudder is suspended and held in place, these going through eyes in the ship's sternpost. The stalk runs through the stern of the ship, and at its head is bolted a cap to which are attached the ropes by means of which the rudder is controlled. The backing is the various blade part of the rudder.

By far the greater strain comes upon the stalk, and the greatest strain comes on the head of the stalk at the rudder head, where it is held. Hence the stalk is made of the wood most likely to stand the strain, carefully selected, sound, well seasoned oak, while the backing is made of spruce or hard pine. The stalk is of a single, solid, unspliced piece, stout as an oak tree and as large of the dimensions of a small oak, for anything that a man can pin his faith to, if he can have faith in any wood, while the backing or blade is, like many modern wooden masts, built up. It would be difficult if not impossible to find trees that would yield planks big enough for the purpose in a single piece, and the built up backing, made of pieces of selected wood, can easily be made of ample strength to withstand any strain that will be brought upon it.

As to the stalk, stout and solid as the oak may be, the head may be twisted by the force of a tremendous blow from a wave upon the rudder, or, under the repeated strains of long use, the head may split and so make the stalk useless. Then the rudder is taken out and fitted with a new stalk. A suitable stick is selected and worked down to the proper size and form, and very probably the old backing is attached to it. The life of a rudder stalk would probably be twelve to fourteen years. The backing might last as long as the ship.—New York Sun.

HERO OF THE BUSH.

Courage and Devotion of a Brave Maori Youth.

Heroism is not an attribute peculiar to the white man, nor is self sacrifice the prerogative of civilization. In Mr. J. C. Firth's "Nation Making" is told a story as touching in its brave devotion as any tale of the Victoria cross. The incident occurred at Orakau, where the English soldiers had just defeated the Maoris. A little party of colonial troops, pursuing fugitives, came upon three natives, two old men and one young fellow.

The youth, seeing the soldiers, dropped on one knee and aimed with his gun at the advancing party, which halted a moment, while the old men ran toward the forest. The old men had thrown away their firearms in order to make escape easier.

The soldiers fired at the youth, but missed. Without discharging his gun he sprang to his feet and ran on in advance until he caught up with the old men once more. Then, facing about, he presented his gun as before, but reserved his fire.

The weary old men gradually drew near cover. Once more the soldiers fired and missed; once more the gallant fellow turned and bounded on. The old men were close to the forest when the youth, nearly fainting, again knelt and took aim, but still did not fire.

The soldiers shot him as he knelt and rushed to the forest, but failed to capture the two fugitives, who, safe in the dense underbrush, made their escape.

On their return the soldiers found the brave young fellow lying dead. His gun was empty; it had not been loaded at all. With it he had covered the retreat of the old men and secured their freedom by the loss of his own life. No more gallant deed of heroic devotion was ever accomplished in any land.

Dreams of the Healthy.

There has been much discussion as to whether one dreams only on falling to sleep and during the act of waking up, or whether dreams take place at any time during sleep. While not definitely determined as yet, the evidence seems to be rather in favor of the view that one may dream at any time during the night or the whole night through. Dreaming is common to perfectly healthy persons, and in itself is no evidence of disorder.—Harper's Magazine.

What He Would Do.

Grandpapa — Tommy, Tommy, you aren't behaving well. Do you know what I should do if I were a little boy like you? Tommy—Yes, grandpapa, you'd do the same as I do, 'cause if you didn't you wouldn't be a little boy like me.

Observe the face of the wife to know the husband's character. — Spanish Proverb.

HOW BONNER WON SUCCESS

The career of Robert Bonner, the veteran publisher, furnishes a signal illustration of the value of persistent and sagacious advertising. When he began the publication of the paper whose phenomenal success brought him fame and fortune, he did not wait for the people to find out, slowly and gradually, the interesting features of his journal.

He forced his enterprise upon public attention by a systematic lavishness of expenditure for advertising which at that time was without precedent or parallel. Whole pages of daily newspapers were secured at high prices to blazon forth the merits of his undertaking.

From one end of the country to the other the names of Bonner and his Ledger were made familiar to the people by constant repetition.

Conservative publishers, jogging along in the ruts of old routine, prophesied bankruptcy and ruin for this unconventional innovator, but Bonner kept on spending a large share of his receipts in buying publicity, and those receipts increased with startling rapidity.

Every dollar disbursed in this way brought in more dollars until croakers were confounded and pessimists in this particular branch of business silenced by his tremendous success.

The lesson is one that is as well worth heeding today as it was forty years ago.—Philadelphia Bulletin.
